

The COSHAR Foundation Health Advisory Board

Our health advisory board actively serves as a resource for the foundation initiatives and provides ongoing expertise. The advisory board is composed of leaders in their respective fields and is a diverse group of healthcare professionals dedicated to the mission and objectives of The COSHAR Foundation. Several members of the healthcare advisory board also serve on the governing board of the foundation. Additionally, there are other physicians, nurses, physician assistants, psychologists, and other healthcare professionals that are part of the COSHAR volunteer network.
